

ROCHESTER CHAPTER

New York Association for the Education of Young Children

2018-2019

Professional Development

FUNdamentals of Early Literacy: PLAYING, ART MAKING, STORYTELLING

Presented by Nancy Stanton Multer, Early Learning Specialist

Thursday
October 18th

6pm—8pm

Al Sigl Center
DOOR #1
1000 Elmwood Avenue

Enjoying mastery of the skills of writing, reading and math requires practicing lots of early literacy skills during a child's early years -continuing through 1st grade! This interactive workshop will involve many hands-on experiences that explore the elements of play, the development aspects of children's art making, strategies for storytelling, and the importance of steady beat!

Participants will receive 2 training hours toward NYS licensing requirements.
No Pre-Registration is Required – just come.

FREE for Standard and Premium NYAEYC members

$20 fee for others

OCFS #1 & #3    CBK #1 & #4

ASL interpreter available on request. Please request via email (rochester.chapter.nyaeyc@gmail.com) by October 12, 2018

Save the Date for the other 2018-2019 Professional Development Sessions!
January 17, 2019 — — March 14, 2019 — — May 23, 2019
6pm—8pm