• Maintain good standing with the NYAEYC partner agencies including, but not limited to: the Office of Children and Family Services, the State University of New York Professional Development Program and New York Works for Children.

Part 3: Coaching Reflection Portfolio

You will have 30 days to submit your online reflection portfolio questions from the date NYAEYC notifies you that Part 2 approval is complete.

This is the definition of coaching for this credential designation: Coaching is a relationship-based process led by an expert with specialized and adult learning knowledge and skills, who often serves in a different professional role than the recipient(s). Coaching is designed to build capacity for specific professional dispositions, skills, and behaviors and is focused on goal-setting and achievement for an individual or group.

For additional characteristic of this definition please CLICK HERE and scroll to page 11 for the NAEYC and Child Care Aware definition that New York State has adopted.

Below you will find the components/instructions of the portfolio process you will be competing in your online application.

1. Core Body of Knowledge Self Assessment
   This process helps to further determine your areas of expertise.

   A. Assessment and Professional Development Planning Tool
   If you do not have a paper copy of the CBK, you can access the online version here, and this link will take you to a pdf of the professional development planning tool.
   Begin this process assessing your competence in the 7 knowledge base areas of the CBK. Carefully read through each related behavior and skill for each core competency area. It is expected that although you are an experienced professional, there will be areas of opportunity for every applicant. If you have recently completed the assessment and professional development planning tool as part of the CBK Institute, you may use that document. If not, please click here to view a short instructional video.

Use the assessment tool to note whether that competency is an area of strength, an area of steady progress, or an area of opportunity. Use the summary page to keep track of your results as you complete each section. When you have completed the online sections of the entire portfolio, please upload the professional development planning tool and the CBK Summary Form below. Please upload all documents at the time of submission.

B. Comfort Level Assessment
Please click here to download the comfort level assessment. This tool is intended to provide you with a profile of yourself as a coach in each of the 7 Core Body of Knowledge Competency Areas. Assess your experience, knowledge, and competency level to determine whether you can meet the needs of specific coachee request(s). Reassess yourself periodically as you gain more knowledge and skills through your own professional development. Please use the data collected on the CBK Assessment and Professional Development Tool Summary Page to inform your comfort level assessment. Please upload the comfort level assessment at the time of submission. Please click here to view a short instructional video.
