

Ready & Resilient: Social Emotional Strategies for Leaders and Teachers with Children in Poverty

With Keynote Speaker Nefertiti B. Poyner, Ed.D.

RIT Inn & Conference Center
5257 West Henrietta Road
Rochester NY 14467

ROCHESTER CHAPTER

New York Association for the Education of Young Children

Friday October 4, 2019
12:30pm– 4:00pm

Strategies for Becoming a Resilient Leader

This presentation is designed to provide those in supervisory roles with a strength-based approach to leadership that supports their resilience as well as that of their staff. In caring for the wellness of children and families who have experienced crisis or trauma, it is important to reflect on each one's own resilience strategies to ensure a strong personal bounce.

12:30pm—Lunch
1:00pm—Keynote
3:00pm—Small Group Discussion

3 Training Hours
OCFS: 1, 2, 4 CBK: 1, 2, 6, 7
Cost for this session only: $70

Saturday October 5, 2019
9:00am – 2:00 pm

Beyond What the Eye Can See:

Uncovering the Risk Factors, Protective Factors, and Resilience of Children in Poverty.

This presentation will specifically address the impact of poverty on social and emotional development and how to subsequently support resilience in these children and the adults who directly care for them.

9:00am—Keynote
11:00am— Small Group Discussions
12:00— Brunch
12:30— Discussion Recap

4 Training Hours
OCFS: 1, 2, 4 CBK: 1, 2, 5
Cost for this session only: $75

Register at _____

Friday only: $70 || Saturday only : $75 || Full weekend $130
registration ends Friday September 27, 2019

Nefertiti Bruce Poyner, Ed.D., is an Early Childhood Specialist and National Trainer for the Devereux Advanced Behavioral Health: Center for Resilient Children. Prior to joining the Devereux Center for Resilient Children (DCRC), Dr. Poyner worked as a Preschool and Kindergarten teacher in the city of Philadelphia. She has provided professional development and presentations that focus on educating parents, teachers, and administrators on the importance of paying attention to how children perform academically, and also how they feel, socially and emotionally. Most recently she has co-authored two resources, Building Your Bounce: Simple Strategies for a Resilient You and the award winning Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure: 50 Activities to Promote Resilience in Young Children.

Dr. Poyner's books will be available to purchase at the conference.

For more information or accessibility concerns, please email: rochester.chaper.nyaeyc@gmail.com
For ASL interpretation, please email: jmrloysen@gmail.com